

We Miss You!

June 23, 2021

Dear Valued Supplier,

Thank you for publishing your product content to C&S Wholesale Grocers! We've been hard at work using your data to:

- Optimize warehouse storage capacity, allowing us to store more of your product for increased sales opportunities and product availability
- Deliver your products with the greatest speed and efficiency using our innovative automated palletizing technologies

It's been a while since we've received any item publications or updates from you. We know things in our industry change fast. When you publish your new products and product updates to us on a regular basis, we are stronger together.

Please take a moment to ensure we have your most up to date relevant catalog information:

1. Log into your GDSN solution provider portal and confirm you have published items/item updates to us in the last 3 months
2. Check out www.1worldsync.com/cswg to review our updated Implementation and Attribute Guides
